How To Make – Table Number:

1. Attach a rectangle of dark grey card to mount board and trim to size.
2. Cut a rectangle of ivory card to fit onto the dark grey rectangle and trim the base into shape using one of the lace strip dies.
3. Attach a rectangle of pale blue card to mount board and use to die-cut the table number.
4. Die-cut the two shades of small blue spiral flowers. Use a pair of tweezers to roll each flower into shape before securing at the base with a small blob of hot glue. Gently curl back most of the petals to create more natural looking blossoms.

How To Make – Table Number (continued):

5. Die-cut a selection of foliage in various shades of card before gently curling the leaves and mount the foliage and flowers onto the top of the ivory rectangle.
6. Apply strategically placed dots of Liquid Glass to give the impression of dew before mounting the assembled table number onto a small wooden easel.

How To Make – Flower Jar:

1. Cut a wide strip of ivory card to fit around the centre of the jar and use the lace border die to create the detail around the base.
2. Wrap around the centre of the jar together with a thinner strip of dark grey card.
3. Die-cut the two shades of small blue spiral flowers and one large pink flower. Use a pair of tweezers to roll each flower into shape before securing at the base with a small blob of hot glue. Gently curl back most of the petals to create more natural looking blossoms.
4. Die-cut a selection of foliage in various shades of card before gently curling the leaves and mount the foliage and flowers onto the centre of the grey wrap.
5. Apply strategically placed dots of Liquid Glass to give the impression of dew.
6. Decorate the neck of the jar with a length of ivory paper raffia secured with a bow.

How To Make – Candle:

1. Wrap light grey card around the bottom two thirds of a tall church candle and attach a strip of dark grey card at the top before wrapping a length of paper raffia at the top of the card.
2. Die-cut the two shades of small blue spiral flowers and one large pink flower. Use a pair of tweezers to roll each flower into shape before securing at the base with hot glue. Gently curl back most of the petals to create more natural looking blossoms.
3. Die-cut a selection of foliage in various shades of card before gently curling the leaves and mount the foliage and flowers onto the centre of the grey wrap.
4. Apply strategically placed dots of Liquid Glass to give the impression of dew.
